

Name: _____

Interrogative Sentences

Interrogative sentences are asking a question.

A question mark (?) is the proper ending punctuation for an interrogative sentence.

Write an interrogative sentence about each of the subjects given. Be sure to use the proper ending punctuation.

Example:

1. playground Does the playground have a slide?

2. lunch

3. movie

4. camera

5. uniform

6. cat

7. book

8. table

9. friend

10. fan

11. family

12. house

13. floor

14. kitchen

15. notebook

16. box

17. pen

18. bread

19. father

20. vegetable

21. music

22. jacket

23. hallway

24. bicycle

25. balloon

26. museum

Interrogative Sentences

Interrogative sentences are asking a question.

A question mark (?) is the proper ending punctuation for an interrogative sentence.

Write an interrogative sentence about each of the subjects given. Be sure to use the proper ending punctuation.

Example:

1. playground Does the playground have a slide?

2. lunch Student answers will vary. Answers should be questions, not statements or exclamations. The ending punctuation should be a question mark.

3. movie

4. camera

5. uniform

6. cat

7. book

8. table

9. friend

10. fan

11. family

12. house

13. floor

14. kitchen

15. notebook

16. box

17. pen

18. bread

19. father

20. vegetable

21. music

22. jacket

23. hallway

24. bicycle

25. balloon

26. museum