

Complete Sentences

Name: _____ Date: _____

Write yes if the sentence is complete, or no if it is not.

- | | |
|---|--|
| (1) Jason finally found the time in her busy day to write a letter to her grandmother. yes (2) When the sun comes up in the morning? _____ (3) My big brother, Christopher. _____ (4) Before the big game. _____ (5) My little brother, Jonathan, wants a new bat for his birthday. _____ | (6) The old-fashioned clock above the television chimed three times. _____ (7) Drove quickly across town. _____ (8) Talked to us about his new company. _____ (9) The enormous ship raised its sails and slowly headed out of the harbor. _____ (10) Is not the best speller. _____ |
|---|--|

What is missing from these sentences: the subject, the predicate, both, or neither?

- | | |
|--|--|
| (11) Before the parade began. _____ (12) My aunt from Paris, who runs a shoe store. _____ (13) This afternoon at the big playground. _____ (14) The storm rained hard last night up here in the mountains. _____ (15) Kimberly was browsing through the book with the long, red ribbon. _____ | (16) Found my keys on the desk, right where I left them. _____ (17) Felt sad after her best friend moved away. _____ (18) Played chess against her brother every weekend. _____ (19) Paul with his new electric car. _____ (20) Fell to the floor and made a loud crashing noise. _____ |
|--|--|

Complete Sentences

ANSWER KEY

Write yes if the sentence is complete, or no if it is not.

- | | |
|--|--|
| (1) Jason finally found the time in her busy day to write a letter to her grandmother. yes (2) When the sun comes up in the morning? no (3) My big brother, Christopher. no (4) Before the big game. no (5) My little brother, Jonathan, wants a new bat for his birthday. yes | (6) The old-fashioned clock above the television chimed three times. yes (7) Drove quickly across town. no (8) Talked to us about his new company. no (9) The enormous ship raised its sails and slowly headed out of the harbor. yes (10) Is not the best speller. no |
|--|--|

What is missing from these sentences: the subject, the predicate, both, or neither?

- | | |
|---|--|
| (11) Before the parade began. both (12) My aunt from Paris, who runs a shoe store. predicate (13) This afternoon at the big playground. both (14) The storm rained hard last night up here in the mountains. neither (15) Kimberly was browsing through the book with the long, red ribbon. neither | (16) Found my keys on the desk, right where I left them. subject (17) Felt sad after her best friend moved away. both (18) Played chess against her brother every weekend. subject (19) Paul with his new electric car. predicate (20) Fell to the floor and made a loud crashing noise. subject |
|---|--|